ALL THE DATES

Dear Members and Friends,

This week the boards of Texas and North Texas convened for a joint strategic planning meeting. I am confident that the net result of this meeting will be increasing our value to our membership. We identified an area of weakness in us not reaching out to you individually and asking where you were interested in becoming more engaged with NUCA. In the meantime while we perfect our system of reaching out, we would ask you to consider leaning in. Contact me or Deana (deana@nucanorthtexas.com) and let us know your areas of interest and your ideas for moving NUCA forward.

As members of NUCA we need to go above and beyond in extending professional courtesy to each other. A contractor doesn't need to hear about a supplier's latest product or service as he debates whether or not to draw another card at Casino Night. Come Monday though, that contractor remembers the company logo and extends an RFQ. Similarly, many of our contractors are direct competitors for jobs, but as NUCA members they are collaborators growing the business environment, technology and image of our industry. It is important that we respect the sanctity of each other's work sites. Manpower may migrate, but should not be poached. In the long run, we are all more successful if we respect our common affiliation.

About that Casino Night, it is a lot of fun, and you are down to just a couple of days to still register. You can do so using the link below.

Sincerely,

Driskoll Tubbs

Texas Construction Association

Update on the Grassroots Project

Since the beginning of the year, TCA members have volunteered on three legislative campaigns block-walking for candidates in the primaries. Showing up has made a difference! TCA and its member association have built relationships with policy-makers.

Here's what TCA member Eric Luggar had to say about his block-walking experience: "The block-walking with Jason Villalba was great. You really cannot beat sitting down at a Representative's own kitchen table for 30 - 45 minutes to talk about the issues that affect us and how he could potentially help us with the next session."

Alan Burrows (TCA Lobbyist) will be back in the metroplex February 17 and could use your help. Volunteer for any part of the walk that you can make, for details: click here to contact Alan.
